

Report of the Seminar held on 12.03.2021

A symposium on “India’s freedom struggle” on the occasion of Azadi ka Amrit Mahutsav was organized by Sonari College on 12.03.2021. Dr. Bimal Ch. Gogoi chaired the programme where Mr. Dibyajyoti Konwar, assistant professor, dept. of History, gave the key speech. He shed light on India’s long history of british colonial ruling and the sacrifices the people made to make the country independent again. He explained the importance of such knowledge for today’s youth to understand their root and grow a sense of responsibility towards the nation. A large number of students attend the programme.
