Meeting on 17/08/23

To,
The HOD of English Department
Sonari College, Charaidee.

Subject : Urgent complaint of Verbal assault and almost physical assault against my classmate

Respected, HOD ma'am,

I am writing to bring your attention to a serious incident that happened to me. I am deeply concerned about my safety.

On 16 August 2023, after the class ended, when the teacher was taking attendance, she asked about a particular student (Biswajit) who was absent then a fellow classmate (Bastab Phukan) passed a comment saying "Biswajit has got married" which seemed inappropriate to me and I pointed it out to him, then he acted aggressively and started verbally abusing me which also resulted in a near-physical assault but my only intention was to point him out his mistake. The situation escalated to a point where I felt physically threatened and unsafe.

I kindly request your immediate intervention and support in addressing this matter. I am more than willing to provide further details and cooperate with any resolution process that you may deem necessary.

Statement of the witnesses taken on 17.08.2023

Kasturi Baruah said that after Ankita Baruah enquired <sup>why</sup> a student was not present in the class, Bastab made an inappropriate remark. He was told by Astha not to make such comments when Ujjala Gupta the teacher was present. Bastab then started misbehaving and abusing Astha.

Ujjala Gupta confirmed the same. Deepjyoti Baruah said he did not pay much attention to the matter and though he did hear a commotion he did not want to get involved.

Madam Gopi said that it was the fault of both however he was not very clear about the issue.

Astha Phukan (Complainant) said that Bastab's behaviour was extremely rude and that is why many of their classmates refrain from speaking with him. She said that he made an intimidating move against her and gripped her hand which hurt her.

Bastab Phukan (accused) said that he was instigated by her behaviour and he refused the claim that he advanced threateningly towards her.
